

Geography

The study of people and places - Year 4 Summer Term

Concept: Perception

Review

- Name and locate the world's seven continents and five oceans.
- North America - Environmental regions, physical characteristics, human characteristics countries and major cities.

Outcomes

- Describe and understand key aspects of Earthquakes.
- Understand how Earthquakes impact on human features.
- Investigate a place in North America that has been impacted by earthquakes and how it has changed over time.

Enquiry

Do humans make earthquakes more dangerous? Investigate human features and early warning systems.

Key Vocabulary

Earthquake	A series of vibrations in the Earth's crust
Tectonic plate	Plates that float on the Earth's mantle
Richter Scale	A numerical scale for measuring the strength on an earthquake
Magnitude	Strength of an Earthquake
Mantle	The region between the Earth's core and crust.
Tremor	A quivering movement

Concepts:

Place

Space and scale

Change

