Christmas Carols "Away in a Manger" - America

"Away in a Manger" is a Christmas carol first composed in the late nineteenth century and used widely throughout the English-speaking world. It is known to be an American Christmas Carol.

The most common tune and lyrics were first composed by William J. Kirkpatrick in 1895.

Christmas Carols

A carol is a festive song, generally religious but not necessarily connected with church worship, and sometime accompanied by a dance. A caroller (or caroller) is someone who sings carols and is said to be carolling. These are often sung during Christmas time to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.
