

Year 6- Religious Education

Summer Term

Religion—Hinduism

Review

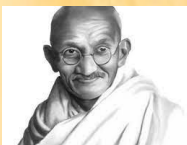

- Love, care kindness were the values of Mother Teresa. Y1
- Hindu creation story of Vishnu Y3
- Vedas is the holy book of Hinduism and the language it is written in is Sanskrit. . Y4
- Patterns of worshipping in Hinduism Y5

Essential knowledge

Find out about the activities of a local religious community and make links with key religious teachings. 2.4b

Make links between beliefs and action and reflect on how this might have local national and international impact. 2.5d

- Know Hindus see involvement in charity work as good action and a means of fulfilling their duty to help those in need.
- Know what the Vedas says about charity work.
- Know that some Hindus believe in sannyasin. (Mahatma Gandhi)
- Contact Hindu temples to see how the temple supports the community, through its religious teachings.
- Know how to make contact with local places of worship and local charities in order to find out how they help people in the local community,

Key vocabulary

dana	Charity in action.
sewa	'selfless service'. It involves acting selflessly and helping others in a variety of ways, without any reward or personal gain.
sannyasin	Living in a state of poverty and giving up your wealth
Gandhi	A social worker and political leader who gave up his wealth for his people.
good karma	Result of good deeds done to others
donation	Charity normally in the form of money.
community	A group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.

Key vocabulary with etymology

donation – comes from Latin donatio(n-), from the verb donare, based on donum 'gift

Thinking like a theologian

- I will explore charity work in Hinduism and our local community, I will find out what the charities are for and how their actions support the community.
- I will engage in discussions and debate and ask questions such as does giving charity change the world?
- I will reflect on the different charitable acts and understand which charity I would support and why?

How can you show love for your community?

