Dear Parents/Carers

We have had a great week at Hempstalls this week, there are an endless amount of positive comments about our wonderful children and their attitudes to learning.

Our Champion children are looking forward to next week - 'EVERYBODY WRITES' based on drama, writing and art. On Monday we have a theatre company visiting school performing a production of, A Secret Garden - to launch the week.

We would be grateful if everyone could fill in a form regarding free school meals, even though your child may receive universal school meals or you might not meet the free school meals criteria. For every form completed – you will be entered into a prize draw where you could win a new scooter and helmet. All forms need to be in school please on Monday.

Wishing you a fantastic weekend,

Miss A Bell
